

ALL IN FOR COMMUNITY

PARTNERING WITH THE COMMUNITY

Unlike international corporate casino operators, the Norfolk Resort and Casino operators are members of the community and plan to reinvest a great deal of time and financial resources back into Norfolk and the Commonwealth of Virginia as a whole. To this end, you can count on the Pamunkey Indian Tribe to be a true partner with the City to make this a project of which we can all be proud. The Tribe knows what it is like to need better access to essential services and resources and is excited to do their part to give back to the Norfolk community.

The Tribe doesn't plan on waiting for the resort and casino to get involved and is currently working on some exciting plans to grow its roots in Norfolk. The Tribe recognizes the food insecurities some residents of Norfolk face and are partnering with churches and local organizations to provide meals to those in need. Food insecurity is an issue close to the heart of the Tribe and they are committed to addressing this complex issue in Norfolk. In addition to hands-on partnerships with community organizations and causes, the Tribe is committed to Norfolk's flood resiliency plan along the Elizabeth River, making them the first private developer in Norfolk to provide funding for this important undertaking that will help protect Norfolk from sea level rise. With a reservation surrounded by the Pamunkey River and much of its land a wetland, the Tribe is particularly sensitive to flooding and pleased to be part of helping the City address this issue.
